Guilford, Conn (Feb 8, 2018) – Connex Credit Union recently donated over $700 to The Dudley Farm Museum in support of their mission to preserve, restore and operate as a late 19th century historical, educational and recreational resource. These funds were raised through Coins-for-Change, Connex’s philanthropic program that contributes more than $13,000 annually to local charitable organizations as part of the ConnexCares initiative.

The Dudley Foundation aims to provide leadership to the greater Guilford community in the promotion of historic awareness and interpretation of the history of the North Guilford community.

“We are extremely pleased with the donation because it will help us achieve our goal of finishing the restoration of the Big Barn ahead of schedule.” Said Bill Black, President of the Dudley Foundation. “This contribution enables us to move onto Phase Three of our Big Barn Project as we strive to turn the Big Barn into a museum and a farm animal habitat everyone in Guilford will be proud of.”

With the Coins-for-Change program, Connex charges a 5 percent fee to members, and a 7 percent fee to non-members, to use its coin-cashing machines. Each fiscal quarter, 100 percent of this money is donated to deserving organizations in the local community.

Local nonprofit or charitable organizations interested in participating in the “Coins-for-Change” program, are encouraged to contact Roquita Johnson at Connex Credit Union, at 1-800-CR-UNION or rjohnson@connexcu.org.
